Defendant made his initial appearance in the above-entitled action and was arraigned on October 9, 2014. At his initial appearance, defendant applied for court-appointed counsel. Finding that defendant qualified for representation under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, the court appointed the Federal Public Defender for the District of North Dakota to represent defendant in this matter.

On February 12, 2015, the court held a detention hearing in this action. Based upon additional information provided to the court at this hearing about defendant's finances, the court finds that defendant no longer qualifies for court-appointed counsel. Consequently, the court GRANTS the Federal Public Defender leave to withdraw as defense counsel.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
